

2010 CALENDAR OF EVENTS

The Old Lincoln Courtroom & Museum Commission has many exciting events scheduled for 2010. PLEASE, MARK YOUR CALENDARS TODAY and PLAN TO ATTEND!!!

| | |
|----------------|--|
| February 13 | Join in Abe's 201st Birthday Party Celebration!!! Activities will include an Abe Lincoln look-alike contest for children starting at 1:00, plus art activities and other birthday surprises. Connie Foley will be coordinating this afternoon of fun at The Old Lincoln Courthouse, so watch for more details in the newspapers & online. |
| April 10 | Pam Brown, noted Mary Todd Lincoln portrayer, will present " Mrs. Lincoln Leaves the White House ". The soliloquy of Mrs. Lincoln's thoughts as she packed to leave after the assassination, research by Ms. Brown and written by Ken Bradbury, will begin at 7:00 pm at the Old Lincoln Courtroom, 101 West 3 rd Street, Beardstown, IL. Contact Paula Woods for reservations. [217-323-4514] |
| May 7 | The anniversary of the "Almanac Trial" will be coordinated by Paula Woods and Ann Chelette. An essay contest for young people will be held to help commemorate this important part of history and Beardstown's historic site. Winning essays will be read at the Courtroom on May 7. Watch for further details. |
| Sept 18 | The Second Annual Trivia Night will bring trivia experts to the Beardstown Elks Lodge on September 18 for fun, food, and friendly warfare. Start gathering teams of 10 or fewer and plan to join the frivolity. Leigh Morris will coordinate these fun-filled festivities. |
| Dec 18 | The "Friends of the Courtroom" are the quiet strength of The Old Lincoln Courtroom. The Commission wishes to honor their faithful annual contributions by hosting a "Christmas with Our Friends" reception at the Old Lincoln Courthouse. Suzanne McClure will have the details closer to the date. |

Additional Events to be announced